“With a bold and innovative style, the music of Lindsey Phillips will inspire and bless you. He has been given a tremendous gift of musical ability and his fresh and enthusiastic approach will leave you wanting more. However, we have been touched by his life as well as his music. Lindsey is an artist with authenticity. He has a heart for pleasing God and a heart for touching people. Enjoy his creativity and allow the Spirit of God to stir your soul.”

“In a day where people are looking for answers, Lindsey Phillips is reaching out and singing from his heart about the powerful changes a committed Christian walk can make. His impact on the young and not so young is inspiring and energizing. Personal lyrics about his own life challenges and breakthroughs make it easy to relate and identify our own areas we need to grow and trust God. I am thankful for young committed men like Lindsey that will stand and be bold about their belief in a personal God who makes a difference in our lives!”
